

I am very happy with the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law and I certainly hope the Federal Government does nothing to lessen our law. It's wonderful not being annoyed by phone calls. My personal policy was to not buy their products or give the callers donations so I don't know why they wanted to bother me in the first place.